

Chaplaincy Endorsement Commission

Christian Churches and Churches of Christ

THE LOOP!

We traveled a loop that took us to visit
4 Commissioners, 9 Chaplains, 3
Colleges, 3 Seminaries, 2 Churches and the Navy Chaplains School.

President Don Green was a great host at Lincoln and is pictured with co-professor Wayne Shaw and several of our Chaplain Candidates, including Philip Ogwal and Matt Shaw. (upper right).

We made many good contacts while there. The display attracts a great deal of attention.

We had a great week at Bettendorf Christian, Bettendorf, IA. I was able to preach three services and meet with the Missions Committee. Senior Minister Tim Scott was a gracious host.

Matt Shaw, the Outreach Associate Minister and a Chaplain Candidate with wife Krista announced to the congregation he intended to pursue Active Duty Chaplaincy in the Army upon his Graduation in May.

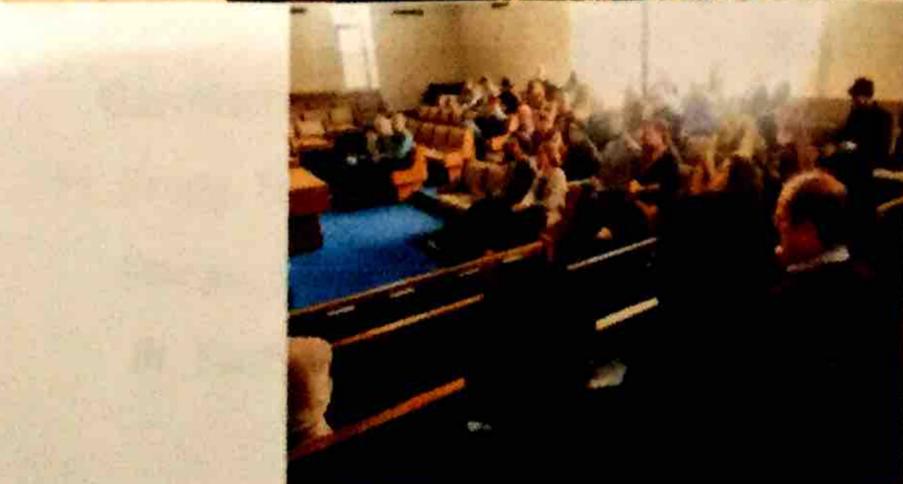

They made an amazing video the was played following the announcement.

Commissioner Jack Holland hosted our visit to Milligan College and Emmanuel Christian Seminary. We had lunch with he and Dr. Mike Sweeney during our visit. It snowed while we were in Johnson City, it was a little inconvenient, but beautiful non the less. We were also able to spend Sunday at First Christian Johnson City. We met with the Missions Committee on Monday night. Nikki Hunt and Migon Sewell were great hosts.

We were able to speak in classes, receive a shout out at chapel, attend a luncheon with Chaplain Ephraim Tshuma and visit with Chaplin Perry Haggan's son, Matt. Michael Henebry and his family joined us for dinner on evening.

We had a chance to visit the Navy Chaplains School where a colleague of mine, Steve Moses is now the Commanding Officer. Our son Jess is attending the Basic Chaplain Course. We also have Bryan Greene attending and were able to have dinner with he, his wife Alanna and daughter Abi.

Friends...I cant believe I's saying this, but after 32 years of military service Kevin I retiring! His retirement ceremony took place on Friday and it was bittersweet to stand beside him on that stage. However, we are so excited to begin a new season and see what God has in store for our family!

So, thank you Kevin for serving soldiers and their families so diligently. Thank you to our girls who have scarified more than anyone will know and yet

Still sing the Army song loud and proud!

Thanks to the friends we have met along the way who have encouraged us, participated with us in ministry, and just shared life with our family.

I thought I would share a few photos of our adventures and a list of where we have been stationed.

Ft. Stewart, Georgia

Camp Zama, Japan

Ft. Jackson, South Carolina

Garmisch, Germany

Ft. Bragg, North Carolina

Daegu, South Korea

Ft. Eustis, Virginia

*Lastly, the last line from Kev's retirement ceremony bio.
"Kevin plans to remember his Military career daily while receiving and completing tasks from his wife for things to do around the house."*

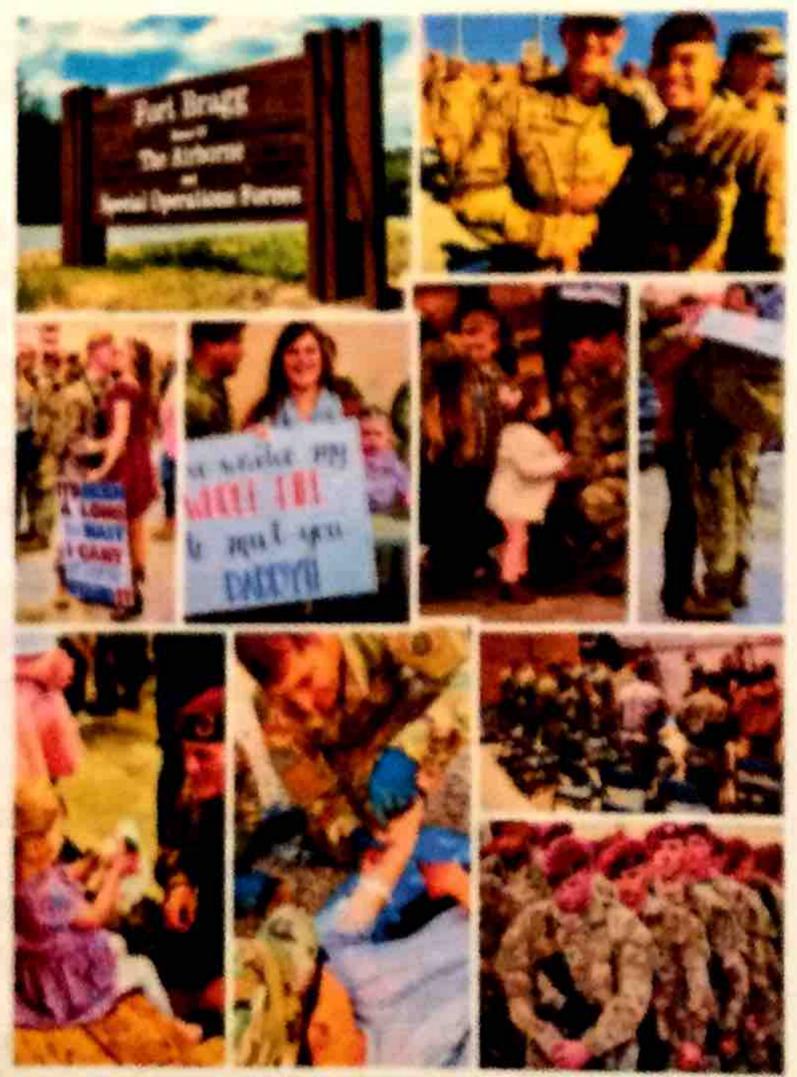

Brent Crosswhite promoted to Major.

Such a wonderful accomplishment
 Congratulations!

1st. Brigade Combat Team, 82nd Airborne Division

Chaplain Matt Worstell

More than 500 additional 1BCT Paratroopers returned from Afghanistan and walked through the doors of Green Ramp. We are glad to finally have them back with us. Help us give them a grand welcome home.

He is risen indeed. Now he is seated at the right hand of the Almighty God, crowned with glory and honor.
